OUR STRATEGY

Pakistan Public Help Foundation & Aid Trust

Serving the vulnerable is not just our mission—it is our promise. We don't only provide aid in times of need; we work to uproot poverty, creating a future where no child goes hungry, no mother feels helpless, and no father is trapped in despair.

We focus on the social, health, economic, and educational empowerment of marginalized communities—especially children and women in Mandi Bahauddin and across Pakistan. Our goal is to open pathways to dignity, independence, and a better life.

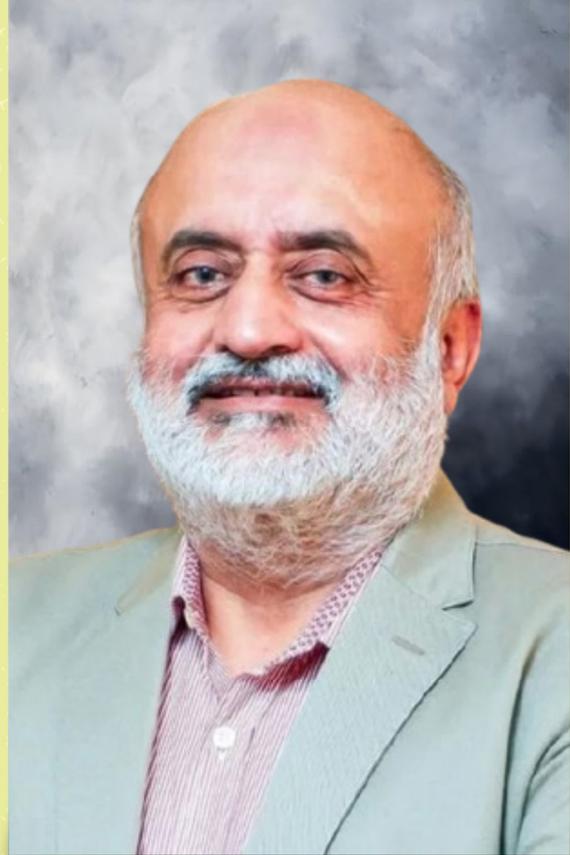

With Special Consultative Status at the United Nations and membership in numerous national and international networks, we are committed to building a society where everyone has the chance to rise, thrive, and leave deprivation behind.

APNAY HISSAY KI SHAMA

Pakistan Public Help Foundation and Aid Trust's Inspiring Journey Under Nasir Abbas Tarar's Leadership

Under the visionary guidance of Nasir Abbas Tarar, PPHF has sparked a remarkable transformation by establishing welfare organizations in 260 out of 433 villages in Mandi Bahauddin. These organizations have become beacons of hope, uniting local communities and overseas supporters to uplift their villages together.

“Apnay Hissay Ki Shama” — Lighting the Flame of Change

This powerful program empowers villagers to take ownership of their own development. Together, they identify challenges and work hand-in-hand to overcome them. Most funding comes from overseas community members who remain deeply connected to their roots.

Thanks to this collective effort:

- Clean water filtration plants have been installed.
- Schools have been built and educational standards raised.
- Community clean-ups, road repairs, and essential infrastructure projects have been carried out.
- Widows, orphans, and underprivileged families receive vital support.

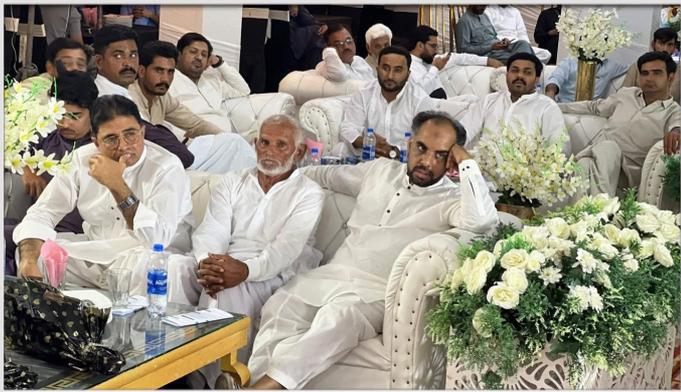

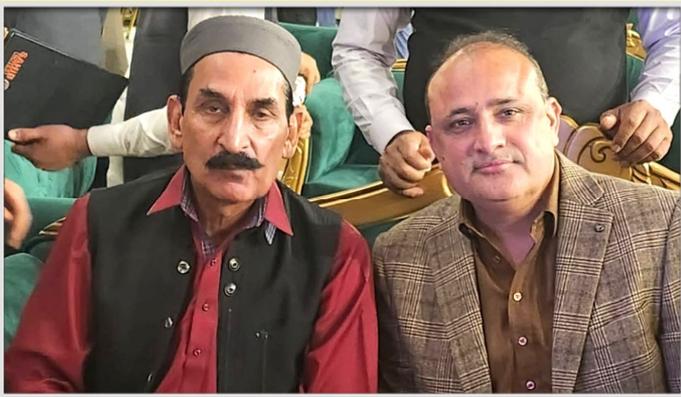

These efforts have ignited pride, unity, and leadership within the communities. Villagers are now active agents of change, turning their homes into thriving model villages.

PPHF's Vision

Though government holds responsibility for welfare, PPHF believes true progress comes when communities unite and lead their own growth. Through “Apnay Hissay Ki Shama,” PPHF invites everyone to join hands in building self-reliant, sustainable, and prosperous communities.

Let's all light our share of the candle and be the change our villages deserve!
